PARTY SCHOOL GRADUATES MANY QUALIFIED WORKERS.

KHABAROVSK LISTS ACHIEVEMENTS -- Tikhookeanskaya Zvezda, No 176, 28 Jul 49

The Khabarovsk Kray Party School of the Khabarovsk Kray Committee VKP(b) has been in operation 4 years and offers a 2-year course in which it trains administrative Party and Soviet personnel on a rayon and city level. In 1948, the school graduated more than 120 persons who are now working as secretaries of rayon Party committees, heads of sections in rayon and city Party committees, and as chairmen and deputy chairmen of rayon executive committees. More than 60 administrative workers in rayons and cities of the kray have completed the 9-month refresher courses at the school.

This year, 265 students are attending the school and 60 are attending the refresher courses. Among the students, both of the school and the courses, are persons who worked as secretaries and heads of sections in rayon committees, instructors in city and oblast committees, editors of rayon newspapers, and chairmen and deputy chairmen of rayon soviets of workers' deputies. Among the students are 112 persons from Primorsky Krai, Sakhalin, Amur, and Chita oblasts, and the Buryat-Mongol ASSR. Seventeen nationalities are represented among the students.

The school has five chairs, and the training program is organized primarily into two faculties -- Party and soviet. The Party faculty trains Party, propaganda, and newspaper workers. Students are called upon to direct political study groups or to give lectures in nearby rayons.

This year, on 30 July, 128 Party and soviet workers will have completed the 2-year course and will receive the diploma of a higher educational institution equivalent to that of a teachers' institute. Among the graduates are many who have already been appointed to administrative positions. Students Ryachev, Staynov, and Nikolayev have been nominated as first secretaries of rayon committees VEP(b) in the city of Khabarovsk. Lovtsev has been nominated secretary of the Birobidzhan City Committee; and Lyashchenko, deputy chairman of the Kamchatka Oblast Executive Committee.

This next school year, the school will admit 140 new students. The school plans to improve training in such courses as Party and soviet construction, state law, and the fundamentals of Soviet economics and journalism.

Khabarovsk Party School Year Ends -- Tikhookeanskaya Zvezda, No 163, 13 Jul 49

At a recent conference of propagandists in the city of Khabarovsk, it was reported that of the 235 study groups on Party history, 221 groups completely fulfilled the training program, and 105 of the 124 political schools studied all 13 subjects of the program. In the city there were also given 765 lectures and 68 seminars which were of great assistance to Communists making independent studies. The city and rayon Party committees made some improvement in selecting and training personnel. Eighty percent of the city's propagandists have had higher and secondary education and the majority have had from 5 to 6 years' experience in propaganda work.

Khabarovsk Party Registers Students -- Tikhookeanskaya Zvezda, No 175, 27 Jul 49

The 2-year Night University of Marxism-Leninism of the Khabarovsk City Committee VKP(b) is registering students for the first-year course of the 1949 - 1950 school year. The university assists Party soviet, and economic workers, and intelligentsia of the city to increase their political-ideological background and to obtain a firm knowledge of the fundamental problems of Marxist-Leninist theory. The subjects studied in the first-year course are history of the VKP(b), history of USSR peoples, and foreign policy of the USSR and contemporary international relations. The second-year course takes up the study of dialectical and historical materialism and political economy.

The lecture course and seminars will be given by teachers in the city's higher educational institutions and the Kray Party school, and by lecturers of the Kray and city committees VKP(b). Teachers in higher educational institutions who have completed the night university, will be released from taking a candidate's examination in dialectical and historical materialism, except for those persons who are preparing to defend dissertations in philosophy, history of the VKP(b), history of USSR peoples, and political economy.

Classes begin on 1 September. Applicants must submit applications through the primary Party organization to the rayon committees VKP(b) and to the university by 15 August. The university will accept graduates of secondary, incomplete secondary, and higher schools. Address: ulitsa imeni Karla Marksa, 13. -- Advertisement.
